To
The Chief Secy:
to the Govt of Mysore Bangalore —

Sir — I beg to say that there are several cana rese - news papers, magazines &c for the use of the public. There are equally several English weekly, daily & monthly also. The want of Sanscrit papers is greatly felt in the country to educate the learned in that Special language as in the mother tongue of the people of this country, now it has become a dead language for want of local publications.
It is not possible for the readers to go thro: the papers intended without the aid of the English as the Canarese has become popular among I have been therefore requested by friends to start an Anglo-Sanscrit, weekly to educate them. I think the Govt will kindly accommodate me with this kind permission if need be to do so vide Press Act now partly kept in force.
I beg leave to remain
Your most obedt servt.
Swami Atmanand
Please note my address on the
